The official organizations that encourages and promotes in Amasya.

ASSIGNMENT
To present investment opportunities for members of the global business community assist them before, during and after their entry to Amasya.

FUNCTION
To serve as the reference point for international investors and the point of contact for all institutions engaged in promoting and attracting investments at national, regional and local levels.

FACILITY
To provide an extensive range of services to investors with a one-stop shop to approach, in full confidentiality and free of charge, and assist them in reaching the best results in Amasya.

ATTITUDE
A continuous client support with a 100% quality service, which is fully integrated with private sector methods and is supported by all governmental institutions.

LOCATION
Headquarters in Amasya.

---

FOR MORE COMPETITIVENESS TO YOUR GLOBAL BUSINESS GO INSIDE

INVEST IN AMASYA AGRICULTURE SECTOR
WHY AMASYA?

A Vast Body Of Resources In Amasya Is Waiting For Investments Of Agriculture based Industry To Create For Competitive Synergy.

- For agriculture industry, Amasya region has a special superiority called microclimatic effect.
- Microclimate is a local atmospheric zone where the climate differs from the surrounding area.
- A microclimate offers unique advantages to agriculture industry by keeping the area warmer for longer that allows maximizing agricultural harvest period.
- Wide agricultural lands that mean low-cost raw materials for feed production.
- Amasya is one of the leading centres in Turkey with the first organized industrial zone of stockbreeding sector.

POWERAGE

- People of Amasya with collective quality offer a business process minimizing typical problems of work life, resulting in the quality.
- Amasya vocational and technical secondary school enrollment rate is about 1.5 times the average of Turkey.
- For agriculture industry, Amasya region has a special superiority called microclimate effect.
- Microclimate is a local atmospheric zone where the climate differs from the surrounding area.
- A microclimate offers unique advantages to agriculture industry by keeping the area warmer for longer that allows maximizing agricultural harvest period.
- Wide agricultural lands that mean low-cost raw materials for feed production.
- Amasya is one of the leading centres in Turkey with the first organized industrial zone of stockbreeding sector.

AGRICULTURE and STOCKBREEDING INDICATORS

- A special superiority in Amasya territory: microclimate effect.
- A cluster of stockbreeding in Suluova with large-sized farms.
- A large amount of supply in producing milk and meat.
- 84,000 cattle in Amasya (31,275 in Suluova), 150,000 sheep and goats, about 150 ton/day milk.
- Availability of bio-gas facilities converting gas energy into electricity and heat.
- The availability of large amount of water resources supporting stockbreeding sector by creating broad grazing lands.
- Wide agricultural lands representing low-cost raw materials for feed production.
- Amasya is one of the leading centres in Turkey with the first organized industrial zone of stockbreeding sector.
- When you invest in Amasya territory you can get a large amount of incentives and supports based on Zone IV in Turkish incentive system.

EDUCATION

- Approximately 8,000 students graduated from around universities in 2010.
- 22,000 high school graduates in 2010 (two third from vocational and technical high schools).

THE DISTRIBUTION OF AGRICULTURAL LANDS (HA)

- Wheat: 636,223 tons
- Sugar Beet: 390,345 tons
- Dried Onion: 422,282 tons
- Cherry: 33,886 tons
- Peach: 18,096 tons
- Poppy Seed: 1,690 tons
- Okra: 1,389 tons

Production Values (TL)

- Wheat: 349,922,650 TL
- Sugar Beet: 46,841,400 TL
- Dried Onion: 72,412,560 TL
- Cherry: 57,606,200 TL
- Peach: 22,620,000 TL
- Poppy Seed: 22,620,000 TL
- Okra: 5,556,000 TL

Amount of Productions (tons)

- Wheat: 636,223 tons
- Sugar Beet: 390,345 tons
- Dried Onion: 422,282 tons
- Cherry: 33,886 tons
- Peach: 18,096 tons
- Poppy Seed: 1,690 tons
- Okra: 1,389 tons

AMASYA A LEADING WAREHOUSE OF TURKEY WITH FULL OF RAW MATERIALS

Unique location benefited from silk road advantages.